1. Read Ephesians 2:11 – 3:13. What is the main idea in this passage? How does that truth affect you emotionally? Why?
2. Read Ephesians 2:14. What kind of “dividing wall of hostility” did Jesus destroy when He died on the cross? What are the practical implications of the removal of that barrier?
3. Read Ephesians 2:18 and 3:12. For you, what gets in the way of the intimacy with God that Paul writes about in these verses? How can you more fully experience the blessing promised in these verses?
4. Read Ephesians 2:20-22. Among professing Christians, what group is on the other side of a wall you have helped build? How can you break down that wall and build a bridge?
5. What did you find most encouraging in Sunday’s message? What did you find most convicting? Was there anything Greg said that made you feel defensive? If so, why?
